‘LITTLE MUNCHERS & CRUNCHERS’ PARENT INFORMATION SESSION

The Little Munchers and Crunchers Group is designed for children who are picky and fussy eaters. Based on the Sequential Oral Sensory (SOS) Approach to feeding, it focuses on creating a positive and confident eating environment for children to explore and learn about the different properties of food, such as smell, texture, and taste.

The group will help your child:
- Learn to have a positive experience with food
- Learn mealtime routines and ways of eating
- Discover and explore food through their senses
- Learn through social modelling by initiating others
- Develop oral motor skills

When: Come along to a FREE information session hosted by an SOS trained Occupational Therapist and Speech Pathologist. To learn more about the SOS approach and our plans for the next group. Here’s the chance to register your interest for the group early and chat to our lovely therapists.

Where: Parents of children who have a limited variety of tastes and textures in their diet, demonstrate food refusal, or have challenging behaviors associated with eating, meet to experience difficulties participating at meal times.

Where: An information session will be run, with two time options available:
- Tuesday 27th May 6:30pm
- Monday 20th June 10:00am

Where: Arcus Dyslexia - 85 Pinjarra Rd, Jarrahdale WA 6164

Register your place before the above dates by calling Kids Are Kids on 9513 8398

Leader in Action Series
Paul Dillon
Drug and Alcohol Research Training Australia (DARTA)

Paul Dillon has been working in the area of drug education for the past 25 years. Through his own business, Drug and Alcohol Awareness and Training Australia (DARTA) he has been contracted by many agencies and organisations across the country to give regular updates on current drug trends within the community. He continues to work with many school communities across the country to ensure that they have access to good quality, information and best practices drug education.

In recent years, he has worked extensively with a range of sporting organisations including the Australian Children’s Alliance, the Rugby Union, the AFL and the Football Federation of Australia to provide training workshops to club officials on the dangers of alcohol and other drugs. In 2006 he co-authored a best selling book for parents also released titled ‘Teenagers, Alcohol and Drugs’. With a breadth of knowledge of a range of content areas, Paul regularly provides media comment and is regarded as a key national commentator in Australia, appearing on a wide range of television programs including Sunrise, Today and the Project discussing topical issues. Paul also holds a regular spot on national radio stations on Triple M across the country where he deals with current youth drug issues. Paul also has a blog where he discusses topical issues of the day, as well as addressing some of the questions and queries that are regularly asked by those attending his presentations.

We welcome all parents to attend this valuable event.
